

Svalner Group and Atlas unite, forming a new premier advisory group – Svalner Atlas Group.

The newly formed Svalner Group, consisting of tax and transaction advisory firms Svalner and Alder, are excited to announce their union with the Dutch tax advisory firm, Atlas Tax Lawyers. The ambition is to form a new premier advisory group – Svalner Atlas Group, offering high-end tax advisory, transaction services and related services in the Nordics and Benelux.

With offices spanning across Stockholm, Amsterdam, Helsinki, Gothenburg and Turku, the Svalner Atlas Group has more than 260 professionals dedicated to delivering top-tier advisory services in the Nordics and Benelux. Through local presence and complementary expertise, the group will offer clients comprehensive, tailored solutions in tax advisory, transaction services and related services.

“We are excited to unite with Atlas, forming a Tier 1 independent advisory group in the Nordics and Benelux. This marks a major achievement for both organizations, laying the groundwork for us to enrich our collective service portfolio, extend our influence, pursue accelerated expansion, and deliver even greater value to our clients”, stated Viktor Sandberg, CEO of Svalner Atlas Group.

With operations in Sweden, Finland and the Netherlands the group aims to broaden its market presence and increase the capacity to invest in the future with new service lines, expertise, education and technology.

“We look forward to the journey ahead alongside Svalner and Alder. Together, we’re well-positioned to forge a robust and agile organisation, challenging industry norms and spearheading success for both our clients and team members, said Roelof Gerritsen”, Partner at Atlas and Deputy CEO of the new Svalner Atlas Group.

The new group remains focused on fostering an environment that values its talented team of professionals, providing them with opportunities for growth and development within an international and dynamic corporate setting. Svalner, Alder and Atlas joining forces signifies the creation of a stronger, more versatile partner for clients, capable of addressing the evolving challenges of today’s business landscape.
